ORVILLE WRIGHT

Travels Seventy Miles In His Machine at Fort Myer.

Near Washington on July 21, establishing a new record for aviation in America, Orville Wright, in the Wright aeroplane, at Fort Myer made a spectacular flight of one hour, twenty minutes and forty-five seconds.

During the entire flight the machine was under perfect control. The machine traveled about seventy miles, and the height attained, between 260 and 280 feet, exceeded the highest point ever reached by a heavier-than-air machine on this continent.

The most wonderful part of the flight was the execution of three complete "figure eights." After rounding the course a half a hundred times, the aviator directed the machine's course around the small double-circles of a "figure eight."

Secretary of the Navy, Attorney General and Postmaster General were among the many officials who witnessed the flight. After traveling several hundred feet at a height of only about five feet, the aeroplane arose gradually to a height of seventy-five feet before making the first turn.

The aviator sent the machine up on each turn to a height of about 150 feet, which was maintained until toward the end of the flight.

Try These On Your Tongue.

A London paper recently offered a series of prizes for the best "tongue twisting" sentences. The prize-winning contributions are:

The bleak breeze blighted the bright broom blossoms.

Two toads totally tried to trot to Tedbury.

Strict, strong Stephen Stringer snared sickly six sickly silky snakes.

Susan shineth shoes and socks; socks and shoes shines Susan. She ceaseth shining shoes and socks for shoes and socks shock Susan.

Meaning of an Inch of Rainfall.

An acre is 6,272,640 square inches. An inch of water on an acre is, therefore, 6,272,640 cubic inches. That amount at 277 cubic inches to the gallon, equals 22,000 gallons or 230,000 pounds or 100 tons. An inch of rain is, in other words, rain falling at the rate of 100 tons to the acre.—Philadelphia Bulletin.

An Embargo on the Souls of Men.

A Presbyterian pastor of Washington, D. C., Rev. Donald C. MacLeod, invited the members of the Central Labor Union to attend the Sunday evening services in his church. When the invitation was read at a meeting of the union, the secretary of that organization made the following declaration:

I believe in consistency. If the ministers of this town want union men to be numbered among their auditors, they should do something to show them that they appreciate union principles. The minister in question, to my own personal knowledge, patronizes a non-union barber shop. In the future let him go to a barber shop in whose windows are displayed union cards.

The President of the labor organization then appointed the Secretary a committee of one to call upon the minister and ask that in the future he patronize only union barbers. If this demand were considered legitimate and were yielded to, it would open the way for another, to the effect that if the union is to accept the invitation of the pastor, no similar invitation should ever be extended to non-union barbers.

If this demand were

AN IDEAL CHOICE

IS Taft's Selection For American Minister To China.

Charles R. Crane, of Chicago, the noted elevator manufacturer, who has been chosen by President Taft to represent the United States as minister to China, succeeded W. W. Rockhill, taken from China to be ambassador to Russia, was born in Chicago and is fifty-one years old.

Mr. Crane is one of the greatest travelers in this country. He has set foot in nearly every country on the globe, and is as much at home in Russia or China as he is in Michigan boulevard in Chicago. He is a linguist of considerable attainments, a connoisseur in paintings, a collector of old and rare books, and a reader of the same. He is prominent as a civic enthusiast, and for years has been a powerful factor in movements for the advancement of Chicago, commercially, physically and morally.

He was educated in the public schools of Chicago, and after he graduated he donned overalls and jacket and entered the employ of the company of which his father was head. He learned the business from the bottom to the top, and after serving in various capacities from the lathe to the bookkeeper's stool he became first Vice President of the concern in 1894, and took charge of the foreign business of the company. In assuming control of its foreign affairs Mr. Crane started his career as a traveler.

During his spare moments, Mr. Crane had found time for extensive study, and by the time most young men are leaving college with a smattering knowledge of a long list of subjects he had assimilated two foreign languages and could speak them like a native. Early in the course of his business affairs he went to Russia. He went into all the provinces. He met officials and peasants and made a close study of life.

When not in Chicago or Russia, Mr. Crane was ranging the globe elsewhere. He formed a passion for paintings, and started to make a collection, which today is one of the best in the United States.

During his travels Mr. Crane spent much time in China, his business interests taking him into every province. He came into close contact with all classes of Mongolians.

In his library are books written in a dozen different languages. When he wants to look up a topic he takes down books in several different languages and reads them without the aid of a lexicon. He is said to read twelve languages and to speak with ease and fluency six or eight.

Poultry Notes.

The male is half the pen—it pays to get the best you can buy.

Poultry is one of the best payings things on the farm when properly cared for, and brings in something every month of the year.

A uniform flock of one kind of fowls is more satisfactory in appearance, more easily handled, and gives more uniform results and a considerable greater profit than a mixed lot of different kinds.

There is no excuse for neglecting the poultry for a single day. Eggs will be eggs as long as the world lasts, and there is good money in them year in and year out.

Judge Lindsey's Decision on the Cigarette.

There is probably no public man in the country who has made a more exhaustive study of the causes that lead to the downfall of boys than has Judge Ben. B. Lindsey, the judge of the juvenile court of Colorado. In an article written for the Sunday School Times, Philadelphia, Pa., he has this to say regarding one of those causes:

"I have been in the juvenile court nearly ten years, and in that time I have had to deal with thousands and thousands of boys who have disgraced themselves and their parents, and who have brought sorrow and misery into their lives; and I do not know of any one habit that is more responsible for the troubles of these boys than the cigarette habit."

We are not to argue from this that it is generally only the naturally vicious that take up the use of the cigarette. But the continual inhalation of the poison of the cigarette has a dulling or deadening influence upon the moral sensibilities of the user; and after becoming addicted to it, he will do things that he would not think of doing before. To the increasing indulgence in the use of the cigarette we must attribute, to a very large extent, the great increase in crime among the youth of this and other countries.—Liberty.

Arrested For Chopping Wood on Sunday.

We have been informed that a Seventh-day Adventist in Tennessee has been arrested for chopping some wood in his own doorway on a recent Sunday. The wood was to be used in preparing dinner for his family. The case was tried before a justice of the peace, and was decided against the arrested man. From that decision the defendant has taken an appeal. The appeal will be tried in July, and we shall have a representative at the trial, a report of the matter will appear in our next issue. The evidence in this case, as in all others where Seventh-day observers have been arrested for working on Sunday, shows that the arrest was occasioned not by the fact that work was done on Sunday but because it was done by one whose conduct in the matter was governed by divine example and authority.—Liberty.

Woman May Go To Congress.

The women of Colorado are to make a stubborn effort to send one of their sex to Congress two years hence. Such was the announcement made to the delegates from the International Council of Women by one who spoke for the women's associations in the State.

"Of course, it is difficult to tell whether we will be successful in our efforts or not," said Mrs. Harriet Wright, former member of the State Legislature, but we are looking forward to landing a woman in the halls of Congress, and we are certainly going to make a determined trial."

Are Simpson, Stanley and Slavin, Leaders in Riots at Stearns.

Deputy United States Marshal Wm. Mays, accompanied by Deputy Sheriff John Edwards and Commissioner W. C. Barnett, of Richmond, left July 19 for Atlanta, Ga., having in custody George Simpson and Jesse Slavin, convicted at the recent special term of Federal Court on the charge of conspiracy and murder, which it is alleged was caused in a fight between miners and United States Marshals at Stearns on Christmas day, when Deputy Marshal John Mullins and a miner by the name of Ross were killed.

In addition to their life sentences on the murder and conspiracy charge, George Simpson, Geo. Stanley and Elisha Slavin were each given ten years on the charge of disobeying a court injunction.

Sentences were passed on the men at noon by Judge Cochran, at which time a pathetic scene was experienced when they together with their wives and children made sympathetic appeals to Judge Cochran for the commutation of their sentences.

A motion for a new trial was overruled by the Court, but sixty days was granted them for the purpose of appealing if they cared so to do.

Stickers Used to Boost Lexington

The Commercial Club of Lexington has received 100,000 gum labels which will be used in the campaign boosting Lexington. These labels are very handsome and are embossed and printed in three colors. One set in red and gold, another set in black and gold and the third gold entirely. The labels are about the size of a silver dollar and across the center in large type are the words "Lexington, Ky." above and below in a semi-circular effect is the inscription, "The Blue Grass Capital." It is the purpose to get the members of the Club to paste these stickers on the letters and other correspondence sent out.

LOUISVILLE BARBECUE.

Recently much has been said in the daily press about the great Democratic barbecue in Louisville, which is to open the campaign, and about the thousands of Democrats out in the State who are enthusiastic over the Louisville ticket and are anxious to join hands with the Democrats of Louisville to redeem both the city of Louisville and Kentucky from Republican rule. The thought is expressed that if Louisville is first carried by Democrats then the State ticket is sure of success.

The object of chief concern should be: Not to redeem Louisville from Republican rule, but to save Louisville and Kentucky from the disgrace and humiliation which attended Democratic methods in Louisville prior to and in 1905. If Democrats will do this there is hope for the party in Louisville.

We are interested in the welfare of Kentucky, and we know that, as long as tactics similar to those used in Louisville some years ago are resorted to by either Democrats or Republicans in any city or State, there should be an unmixed and unanimous rep-ence before that party can have the cheerful support of many former adherents.

At the time these exposures were made and the elected Democrats deposed, we stated in print, that if we had been a resident of Louisville we would have voted the Republican ticket at the next election. Such a declaration by a Republican or a Democrat concerning his party may be regarded by party leaders as unwise and traitorous; but party leaders must recognize that, if their organization in any city is honeycombed (excuse use of so sweet a word in such connection) by force, fraud, dishonesty, immoral practices, etc., there is danger ahead.

No government or political party or individual can hope to succeed and be worthy of public confidence, respect and support so long as such practices are in vogue. A mere existence is possible; but what individual or political organization wants the finger of scorn pointed at him with the dominant thought, expressed or implied, there is a thief, a moral reprobate, a violator of every political right?

For the present, excuse us for not going into hysterics over LOUISVILLE Democracy. If Democratic candidates and nominees are clean men, if Democratic methods are passably respectable, as good as the other side, our preference is with them. Possibly we will have to make over before we can sanction through the columns of our paper or by our voice the infamies of the Louisville contingents before they were turned down. Of course, with some claim of renovation public approval is again sought. We do not mean to criticise every candidate in Louisville.

We are authorized to announce

CHAS. W. NESBITT
as a candidate for Police Judge of Mt. Sterling, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

FOR COUNCILMEN.

We are authorized to announce the following as candidates for the Democratic nomination for members of the Board of City Council:

FIRST WARD—JAMES MCDONALD

SECOND WARD—M. S. KELLY.

FOURTH WARD—WM. BOTT'S.

In another column is an article: "He Went But Never Came Away." Judging from what we have heard about social conditions (in spots) in Montgomery county and Mt. Sterling for a few years past we think there has been need of an object lesson in the final outcome of sin so far as this life is concerned.

The man, who by his blandishments, favors, persuasions, promises, etc., invades the sanctity of another man's home and despoils it of the mutual confidence, love and virtue which should exist between husband and wife, however humble that home, is a criminal, an enemy of God and man, and deserves neither social standing or business prestige. Next to a man's relation individually to his God there is no more sacred, no relation more enduring than that of the home, where husband and wife should each strive to make it ideal.

The invader of a home who thus destroys it is a reprobate, and the world loses but little when he is gone.

Innocence may tremble in his presence. The curtain has dropped on the life of this man. Its tragic ending, while it may have revealed to the immediate neighborhood no secret, gives greater publicity to infamy and verifies the statement that the wages of sin is death.

Mr. J. P. Morgan, returning from Europe, says: "Finances in England and everywhere are good. The future looks well here and abroad. We are having a prosperous year. There is no sign of weakness in any way."

Tobacco Meeting.

The announcement that Judge Ed C. O'Rear would speak at the Court House on last Saturday on some phase of the tobacco question drew many town and country people to hear him. He failed to come, but in his place were Mr. Clarence Lebus, and Miss Alice Lloyd, who have been prominent in perfecting the plans of the Burley organization and effecting a sale of the pooled crops. We did not hear Miss Lloyd and only a part of Mr. Lebus's speech. He was greeted with applause as he considered various phases of the work done and yet to be done by the organization. He is a competent, captivating and tireless worker. Mr. J. A. Bohannon, a banker, many years ago of our city, was also present to aid in the work.

HE WENT

But Never Came Away--NO Sham Goes Here.

On Thursday morning W. H. Wyatt, aged possibly 68 years, who lives in Howard's Mill neighborhood, went to the home of Simon Hedges in Bath county. He never came away. From about 8 to 11 o'clock he lay dead on the floor of Mrs. Hedges' bed room with the contents of a shotgun through his heart, fired by the husband of Mrs. Hedges.

We do not care to give rumors, and as we have not heard of Heedes' trial after promptly surrendering, we will only say that judging from what we have heard of facts and appearances, and what we know of the sadness and inviolability of a home, if ever a man deserved killing, he got his due. The burial was on Saturday. See editorial.

Land Sale.

Read the Master Commissioners notice of sale of the O'Rear farm on August 16, 1909. This is an opportunity to buy 189 acres of good land with nice dwelling, etc. And adjoining same is 106 acres more that Judge O'Rear desires to sell. 3-31

Petition Withdrawn for Local Option Election.

On Saturday the petition for a local option election in Winchester failed in the County Court, was withdrawn. Some of the petitioners desired that the drug stores be exempted from the operation of the law so that they could sell liquor for medical purposes.

A meeting of the local option committee was held Saturday night at which it was decided to stand by the petition as originally filed. Another meeting was held Sunday afternoon and it was decided to let the drug stores sell. A new petition will likely be prepared and an election ordered.

The petition that was withdrawn fixed September 20th for the election. If a new petition is filed the election cannot be held until some time in December.—Winchester Democrat.

Women Suffer

much needless pain when they delay using Cardui for their female troubles. Cardui has been found to relieve headache, backache, pain in the side and dizziness, arising from deranged organs. It does more than relieve,—if used persistently,—many have written to say that it cured them.

TAKE CARDUI

It Will Help You

Mrs. Maxwell Johnson, Tampa, Fla., writes: "Cardui cured me after doctoring everything else had failed. I had been suffering with womb trouble ever since I was 16 years old. One day I decided to take Cardui. I have now taken 5 bottles and I can say that it has cured me. I advise all suffering women to give Cardui a long and fair trial."

Mrs. Johnson suffered years. Have you? Do you wish to? But why suffer any longer? Take Cardui. Give it a fair trial.

Teething children have more or less diarrhoea, which can be controlled by giving Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. All that is necessary is to give the prescribed dose after each operation of the bowels more than natural and then castor oil to cleanse the system. It is safe and sure. Sold by all dealers. 52-4t.

Content to Do Little.
Let us content to do little, if God wills it, and if we do little, it is pride and self-will which says: "Give me something huge to fight, and I should enjoy that; but why make the dust?"—Charles Klinsey.

There is a telephone line over the Alps, but the record elevation in this respect belongs to the United States, there being a line at Camp Bird, Col., which is 13,000 feet above the sea level.

Costly Popularity.
France's cruiser Leon Gambetta is named after the famous politician, who died on December 31, 1852, in the town of Leon, in the Pyrenees. Gambetta had an experience which he was wont to tell against himself. In Paris admirers unyoked his horses and dragged the carriage to his house. Gambetta would narrate this with an air of pride, and he would add, with a smile: "But I never saw my horses again!"

THE THOROUGHBREDS

Will Be One of the Great Features of Coming Blue Grass Fair.

Almost every Kentuckian at one time or another has been a running race, but comparatively few have the opportunity to see the trained stock not in training. Within a radius of twenty miles of Lexington are grouped practically all of the big thoroughbred nurseries to be found in North America. At a number of these places are horses which have cost their owners from $50,000 to $150,000. It is the desire of both the exhibitors and the public to see the importance of the Blue Grass Fair, which comes at Lexington the week of Aug. 9th to 14th, show its recognition of the thoroughbred breeding industry of Central Kentucky by offering a special feature.

This is the only fair in America which offers such premiums and, unless all signs fail, the greatest show of thoroughbred stock ever seen in the world will be provided for those who will be present.

Through the generosity of many of the most important of the thoroughbred breeders, seasons to stallions which stand at fees of hundreds of dollars have been added to the monetary premium to be given to the exhibitors of the thoroughbred ring. Mr. August Belmont has donated a season to his $120,000 horse, Rock Sand, which is worth in cash $1,500, and other breeders will be likewise liberal.

No wonder, then, that the owners of thoroughbred horses are anxious to win these premiums; no wonder, in some of the rings to be shown there should be as many as thirty or forty entries. The thoroughbred show will be the climax of a week which will go down in the annals of horse shows of the country. The Blue Grass Fair and grounds thousands of people from every section of America.

Advance promises from the owners of the most valuable horses in the vicinity of Lexington indicate that the vast majority of such horses will be shown. Mr. August Belmont, James R. Keene, Clarence H. Hedges, J. B. Hinman, F. R. Hitchcock, R. T. Wilson, J. E. Maiden and others who own stock scarcely less valuable, will give the public the opportunity to see such horses as can be found in no other section of America than at the big stock farms near Lexington.

The next day we came to a stream which had dried out to a stream bed, the water having been upon the sign of coolness, and the mouth of the stream was a hole in the earth. The result was that his mouth and nostrils shrunk up so that he could no longer breathe or breathe. Within two minutes he was dead. Investigation showed that he had drawn from an iron spring; what we believed to be snow was alum crystals. I stripped the saddle from the horse and packed it in the snow to camp.

From the time this I have never tasted water on my occasional trips to the Yellowstone park, and I do not see how I can be blamed for my action either."—Anchorage Standard.

THE FLORAL HALL

Find Place to Meet Your Friends at the Blue Grass Fair.

The Floral Hall at this year's big Blue Grass Fair, which comes the week of August 9th to 14th, Lexington, will be the most attractive and most interesting feature. The hall is under the direct supervision of Mr. G. Norton Sharpe, who made such a success of it last year. The first floor will be given over to exhibits of farm products and to a special exhibit which the Kentucky Experiment Station has made for the benefit of the farmers of Kentucky.

On the second floor will be seen attractive booths decorated and occupied by prominent Lexington merchants. On the third floor there will be the exhibits of women's work and table linens, the production being made for 125 different classes.

ACTUAL PHOTOGRAPHS

Reproduced in Wonderful Five-Sheet Posters for Blue Grass Fair.

Probably the most attractive paper ever put out by a fair association is the one we are about to issue to advertise the big Blue Grass Fair, which will be held at Lexington the week of August 9th to 14th. The paper is all made from designs copyrighted by the Blue Grass Fair association, and the views used are taken from actual photographs of the fair in its past.

The most prominent of these is a large five-sheet poster, showing a superb type of a Kentucky saddle horse. One of the best-known exhibitors in America is astide him, and the position of the horse and rider is most graceful and life-like as no other poster or illustration has ever attempted.

Another poster is a picture of a team which showed and won premiums at the Blue Grass Fair and afterward was sold for $6,000. Still another is a fine type of a horse and rider, and the position of the horse and rider is most graceful and life-like as no other poster or illustration has ever attempted.

There is, in addition, special paper advertising the great Kidd band of fifty pieces, considered by discriminating judges the best open-air band in America. A window card has been provided, which is made from a drawing especially designed by the famous animal artist, George Ford Moore, and the Blue Grass Fair is a special type of saddle horse in action.

Such paper as this is, of course, expensive, but it is so attractive that it is certain to bring very excellent results in creating interest and in attracting attendance.

IAS HAD ENOUGH OF WATER.

Pony's Experience Taught Prospector in Yellowstone Park to Avoid the Fluid.

"I had a little experience with animals and water myself," spoke up another whose attire did not speak of the traveling man, but rather of the native Montanan.

"I used to go to the Yellowstone National Park before there was ever a road there or a forest guard or son in fact. In fact, I helped pick out the routes by which the tenderfeet of the present day see the wonders of nature. I used to go to the mountains of the highways. Naturally, the old trails led along a different course, the present roads, for we used to take the shortest way across and where we could not ride we would walk and lead our horses."

"One day I was riding between the upper and the lower geyser basin and my pony and I came to a creek which looked as if it would be pleasant to taste. I stopped the mule to taste the water. The pony began to kick and bite, and I found that his mouth and nostrils were burning and bawling through the trees, carrying my blankets and grub with him.

"It was two days before I found him and caught him. I found that the hair was off his muzzle from his eyes to his nostrils. I greased his head with bacon fat and made the head down and took another drink. The result was that his mouth and nostrils shrunk up so that he could no longer breathe or breathe. Within two minutes he was dead. Investigation showed that he had drawn from an iron spring; what we believed to be snow was alum crystals. I stripped the saddle from the horse and packed it in the snow to camp."

RELIGIOUS

Including Monday night there have been 9 additions to the Som-erset congregation during the meeting by Rev. Tinsley. The attendance has been large.

Rev. E. E. Dawson on tomor-row night closes a week's meeting at Queen St. Mission. Other services are: Bible School Sunday morning, preaching on 4th Sunday, 2 services, prayer meeting Tues-day evening.

Dr. J. A. Salb, of Indianapolis, and W. E. Clarke of Martins-ville, Ind., arrived in this city on Saturday night and left Monday morning. They were guests of Misses Mary Tibbs and Mary McNoury at Mrs. M. E. Cas-sidy's. The trip was an auto; the ladies accompanied him to Frankfort to see the Capitol build-ing.

JOHNSON.—Miss Anna Magowan Johnson, daughter of John T. Johnson and wife, died on Thurs-day, July 15, 1909, with typhoid fever at their home in Aarons Run precinct. She was born on April 20, 1893, hence was in her 17th year. She was an obedient and lovely daughter and friend. Her death brought sorrow to a large circle of kindred and ac-quaintances. She was a member of the Somerset Christian church, devoted to the services of the Lord's house. The funeral service was conducted by Rev. H. D. Clark at Somerset on Saturday, and the burial was in this city. Her parents, a brother and two sisters survive her.

ANDERSON.—Mrs. English An-derson, died at their home in this county near Slaterville, on Wed-nednesday morning, July 21, 1909. For some years she had been an invalid, and hoping to be relieved of tuberculosis had spent some winters at Asheville, N. C. The end came quietly and while she was yet young, being about 35 years old. Before marriage she was Miss Cora McDaniel, daughter of Judson McDaniel, deceased, and was a native of this country. Many neighbors and friends to whom she was devoted and to whom she had shown kindness will greatly miss the influence of her Christian spirit. She was a member of the Christian church. The funeral service was held at the home on Thursday afternoon by Rev. Buffington, of North Middlebury, and the body rests in the family burying ground. She is survived by her husband and four little children, three sons and a daughter.

COONS.—Joe M. Coons, son of Elijah Coons, on Spencer, died at Asheville, N. C., on Monday morn-ing, July 26, 1909. On June 30, 1905, aged 27 years, he was united in marriage to Miss Grace Ogg, daughter of Mrs. Lucy B. Ogg, of this city. An elegant new home had been erected and occupied and it seemed that these young people were beginning life under favorable circumstances. Their joy was of short duration. He fell a victim to general tuber-culosis. On June 24, 5 weeks ago, he and his wife went to Asheville hoping to be relieved. On last Wednesday a message announced his rapid decline. His father and Miss Maude Ogg, sister of Mrs. Coons, left at once for Lexington in an auto to catch the late train for the South. On Friday Mr. Clarence Ogg left to be with them. No encouraging word came. The body arrived in this city on Thurs-day morning at 9:18 o'clock. The funeral will be held at the home on Thursday morning at 10 o'clock by Revs. Clark and Weber, and the burial was in Machpelah. He was an elegant, high-toned young man, and an enterprising farmer. A large circle of kindred and friends, both of Mr. and Mrs. Coons, will regret that one so favored to live should be called hence so early in life. Within 8 years his mother, sister and broth-er have died. The father is des-olate and has the sympathy of many friends.

One Thing Money
CANNOT Do--Buy a
Better Kitchen Cabinet Than the McDougall

YOU can get a kitchen cabinet made of cheap material, carelessly thrown together—made to sell."

Looks pretty good when you buy it. After a while the defects of its design show up, the wood warps, the joints open, the drawers won't work, the roaches gather, and the cabinet, instead of being a help, becomes a burden. But with the McDougall Kitchen Cabinet it's different. It is made of carefully selected, thoroughly sea-soned wood, so that it will stand the varying temperatures of the kitchen and last a lifetime. Constructed and fitted out with the greatest care, so that everything fits snugly, yet works easily. Dust-proof. Moisture-proof. Pays for itself in the supplies it saves. Guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction in every way. Besides the McDougall costs little or no more than the "made-to-sell" kind.

The First Encyclopedia.

The honor of first bringing a dictionary of general knowledge into alphabetical order belongs to Ephraim Chambers. An English Quaker, he was a globemaker's studio boy, he stole the time belonging to his master to compose behind the shop counter the encyclopedia published in 1727.—Ameri-can Review of Books.

A Child's Comment.

Even little children are amazed at the backwardness of New York. A eight-year-old youngster of five, crossing over from New Jersey to New York, was asked to count the number of people in a street. He counted them, then, jerking her father's coat-tails nearly off, exclaimed: "Oh, papa, see the trolley cars being pulled by horses!"—N. Y. Press.

Barbarous English Custom.

Between the west of England believe that by holding a hand over the mouth and touching the affected parts with the blood that comes from the mouth of the dying animal warts will disappear and will not re-appear. The culprits are convinced that moles, worms and other sub-terranean animals have no feelings, and therefore, it is not cruelty to pull them to death in this way.
